TWENTY- FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Oh, boy. It's that irksome parable again. Those poor workers who show up at dawn, and work in the heat all day, end up getting the same pay as the guys who showed up at the last minute. I can feel their outrage even today.

For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD. Isaiah's words never hit so close to home as they do when we hear this gospel today, because that is NOT the way any of us would have handled that situation.

I've mentioned before that I can't stop watching baby videos on you tube. These babies are SO adorable (and I suspect most of them are actually AI), but everything changes when the new baby comes. That's when the videos turn dark, because they show the intense jealousy the older child can feel towards the new baby. Not all, of course. There are heartwarming videos of toddlers hugging and kissing the new baby, but there are others that show the deep betrayal some toddlers feel when they realize mommy loves the new baby, too.

WH Auden wrote:

For the error bred in the bone Of each woman and each man Craves what it cannot have: Not universal love, But to be loved alone. As Abel was a threat to Cain, so it has ever been.

We don't want to hear that our parents love us equally. We want to be taken aside and assured that the truth is we are loved more than all the others. But God's gracious love brings us all into the Beatific Embrace, even those who call to God at the very last minute.

Have you ever been jealous of the gifts God has given to someone else?

VIGÉSIMO-QUINTO DOMINGO DE TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Vaya. Otra vez esa parábola tan irritante. Esos pobres trabajadores que llegan al amanecer y trabajan bajo el calor todo el día terminan recibiendo la misma paga que los que llegaron a última hora. Puedo sentir su indignación incluso hoy.

«Porque mis pensamientos no son los pensamientos de ustedes, ni sus caminos son mis caminos», dice el Señor. Las palabras de Isaías nunca nos tocan tan de cerca como cuando escuchamos este Evangelio hoy, porque esa NO es la manera en que cualquiera de nosotros habría manejado esa situación.

Ya les he mencionado acerca de mi adicción a ver videos de bebés en el YouTube. Estos bebés son TAN adorables (y sospecho que la mayoría son inteligencia artificial), pero todo cambia con la llegada de un nuevo bebé. El video se pone un poco sombrío, ya que muestra cuantos celos puede sentir un hermano mayor hacia el nuevo bebé. Por supuesto que no en todos los casos. Hay videos conmovedores de niños pequeños abrazando y besando al nuevo bebé, pero existen otros que muestran la profunda sensación de traición que experimentan algunos niños al darse cuenta de que mamá también quiere al nuevo bebé.

W. H. Auden escribió:
Pues el error arraigado en lo más profundo
De cada mujer y de cada hombre
Anhela lo que no puede tener:
No el amor universal,
Sino el ser amado exclusivamente.
Tal como Abel fue una amenaza para Caín, así ha sido siempre.

No queremos oír que nuestros padres nos aman por igual; queremos que nos lleven aparte y nos aseguren que, en realidad, somos nosotros a quienes más aman. Sin embargo, el amor misericordioso de Dios nos acoge a todos en el abrazo bienaventurado, incluso a aquellos que claman a Él en el último instante.

¿Alguna vez has sentido envidia de los dones que Dios ha concedido a otra persona?
