Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

My cheeks burn with embarrassment when I think about those who knocked on the Master's door to ask admittance, only to have him say, "I don't know you or where you come from." It always reminds me of a conversation I had with an elderly parishioner many years ago. I knew his name, and several things about him because others who had taken the time to be his actual friends had told me about his fascinating life.

I approached him one day, acting as if we knew each other, and his response was, "I don't know you. I've never seen you before." It was so embarrassing to be called out on my presumptuousness that just because I knew OF him, that meant that I was privy to a friendship with him I'd never earned.

I've written once before about the MOST mortifying moment of my life, when, during COVID, I failed to recognize my oldest friend at an event, just because she was wearing a mask. And yesterday, I asked my friend, whose retirement party we were celebrating, who that VERY warm and sweet woman was who greeted me at the door when I arrived. "Um," she said, "that was me. I was the one who greeted you."

It had been a few years since I'd seen her, and her hair was different, but shouldn't I have recognized her voice, or known her immediately by her warmth? Will things about us have changed so much through the years—our kindness, our outreach to strangers, our faith itself— that the Master will say, "Who are you? I don't know where you come from?"

Recognize us, Jesus. Help us recognize you more.

Have you changed so much that Jesus might not recognize you?

XXI Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

CATÓLICA: RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Hay ciertas frases que sirven como una especie de contraseña para los Millennials, un silbato para perros que solo los oídos formados entre 1981 y 1996 pueden discernir. "¡No puedes sentarte con nosotros!" es una de esas frases.

Es de la película Chicas Pesadas, (que, según escuché de mis familiares más jóvenes, ahora se ha vuelto genial con los niños nuevamente, así que tal vez mi punto sobre que es de nicho sea incorrecto). El personaje de Regina George, gobernante despiadada de los chicos "cool," es rechazada de la mesa de almuerzo ultra exclusiva que ella misma formó cuando sus secuestrados, cansados de su crueldad, le sirven las palabras más devastadoras que un adolescente puede escuchar en público: "No puedes sentarte con nosotros".

Así pasa la gloria terrenal, como dicen.

A primera vista, este Evangelio da vibras de "Chicas Pesadas". Tenemos una imagen de las masas desafortunadas clamando por entrar en el reino de los cielos mientras Dios les cierra la puerta, diciendo: "No sé de dónde son".

Muy "no-puedes-sentarte-con-nosotros".

Pero debemos recordar que las personas que golpean la puerta del cielo en el Evangelio de hoy no son personas que querían un asiento en la mesa del almuerzo de Dios, al menos, no hasta que fuera la única mesa de almuerzo que quedaba, porque habían sido echados de todas las demás.

Todo Jesús decía puedes sentarte con nosotros, seas quien seas, seas de donde seas y hayas hecho lo que hayas hecho. Pero hay muchas mesas de almuerzo en el mundo, y no todos quieren estar de acuerdo con reglas como "arrepíentete" y "sé bueno con esa persona que realmente no te cae bien". No siempre es una mesa fácil en donde sentarse, especialmente cuando hay tantas otras opciones.

Tenemos que elegir el cielo antes de que el cielo se convierta en nuestra única opción.
