Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

What must that have been like, to have met Jesus, and beg him for healing, and then, lo and behold, to be healed! These ten lepers set off to show themselves to the priests, and on the way to see them, one of them realized he was healed. Can you imagine his joy?

Healing almost never happens like that. It's slow, it's painful, and sometimes it gets worse before it gets better. But for this man suffering the pain and loneliness of leprosy, the healing occurred not when he arrived at the Temple, but on his way.

In fact, this man never even made it to the Temple; halfway there, he realized that the true Physician was Jesus, and he rushed back to find him and thank him.

Think of the last bad cold you had. How long after it was gone did you finally realize you were better? We hardly ever realize healing when it happens. Or think of a prayer that was answered. Did it occur to you to recognize at the time that this was, in fact, answered prayer? The best example is the healings that occur in our hearts over time. One day, if we're paying attention, we sit up and say, "Wait. When did I stop being resentful? I can't even remember why I was." Healing works in us when we don't even notice.

That's why this man who noticed he was healed on the road is so exceptional. We, too, should pay closer attention. And, for us, too, it's never too late to notice that we've been healed, and to turn back to find Jesus, to thank him.

What have you forgotten to thank God for lately?

Vigésimo-octavo Domingo de Tiempo Ordinario

¡Qué sensación debieron haber sentido al encontrarse con Jesús, rogarle que los sanara y, ¡Qué los va sanando! Estos diez leprosos fueron a presentarse ante los sacerdotes, y de camino a verlos, uno de ellos se dio cuenta de que estaba curado. ¿Se imaginan su alegría?

La sanación casi nunca ocurre así. Es lenta, dolorosa, y a veces empeora antes de mejorar. Pero para este hombre que sufría el dolor y la soledad de la lepra, la sanación no se produjo al llegar al Templo, sino en el camino.

De hecho, este hombre ni siquiera llegó al Templo; a mitad de camino, se dio cuenta de que el verdadero Médico era Jesús, y corrió a buscarlo para darle las gracias.

Piensa en el último resfriado fuerte que tuviste. ¿Cuánto tiempo después de que se te pasó te diste cuenta de que estabas mejor? Casi nunca nos damos cuenta de la sanación cuando ocurre. O piensa en una oración que fue contestada. ¿Se te ocurrió reconocer en ese momento que, de hecho, fue una oración contestada? El mejor ejemplo son las sanaciones que ocurren en nuestros corazones con el tiempo. Un día, si prestamos atención, nos detenemos y decimos: "Espera. ¿Cuándo dejé de estar resentido? Ni siquiera recuerdo por qué". La sanación obra en nosotros sin que nos demos cuenta.

Por eso este hombre que se dio cuenta de que había sido sanado en el camino es tan excepcional. Nosotros también deberíamos prestar más atención. Y, para nosotros también, nunca es demasiado tarde para darnos cuenta de que hemos sido sanados y volver a buscar a Jesús para darle gracias.

¿Por qué has olvidado agradecer a Dios últimamente?

VIVIR LA LITURGIA - INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA (Live the Liturgy)

Si tenemos fe, clamamos a Dios y le rogamos que nos sane. Pero cuando nuestra fe es recompensada, ¿qué pasa entonces? ¿Tomamos nuestro milagro y corremos? No, debemos regresar a la fuente de nuestra sanación para decir: "Me has cambiado, Señor. Ahora ayúdame a cambiar a los demás".
