Fourth Sunday of Lent

Let us now consider Plato. You remember him. He's the Greek philosopher who wrote that beautiful "Myth of the Cave," in his Republic, around 350 years before Christ. He gives the example of prisoners in a cave, whose only connection to the outside world is the flickering images on the cave wall. One of the prisoners, however, escapes and returns with fanciful stories of light, life, and warmth outside the cave.

He's crazy, of course. They know that the only reality is their chains, and the cold, and the dark, and those amusing images on the wall. Doesn't that remind you of the Pharisees, and the man's neighbors, who were so dead set on disproving the healing of that Man Born Blind that they came up with every possible disclaimer?

No, you just LOOK like the guy who was blind from birth! No, I'm the guy.

But he healed you on the Sabbath! That makes him a sinner!

Well, I don't know anything about that, but here's what I do know. I was blind, and now I see.

I don't ever want to be like the Pharisees, or the prisoners in the cave. I want, always, to look to the Light that is always flickering outside the rigid and sad structures of our sophisticated and cynical world. Miracles? I absolutely believe that Jesus Christ is still healing. But here's your part. It's the task of the baptized to help prisoners, blind to the goodness of God, step out into the Light.

What experiences have you had of healing? Have you even taken the time to notice them?

Rekindle is a welcoming adult faith-formation program for anyone who wants to understand the Catholic faith more clearly—returning Catholics, lifelong Catholics seeking renewal, and adults preparing for First Communion or Confirmation.

Our next eight-week module features Symbolon Part 2: Living the Faith. This series examines the practical side of being Catholic: from understanding the Real Presence in the Eucharist to living a life of prayer and mission. We will explore how "the Truth will set you free" applies to our modern world and how we are called to be disciples in our families and communities. Each session includes prayer, high-quality video presentations, and small-group discussion.

New participants are welcome! You do not need to have attended Part 1 to join us for this module.

MASS INTENTION SCHEDULING CHANGES

If you've tried to request a Mass in the past few weeks, you know we currently have no available Masses until fall. This used to affect only weekends, but to ensure fairness and consistency for everyone, we are changing our scheduling process for weekday and weekend Masses.

Beginning now, Mass requests will be opened on a quarterly basis:

- On April 1, requests for July–September will open.
- On July 1, requests for October–December will open.
- On October 1, requests for January 2027 – March will open.

These openings will apply to all Masses (weekday and weekend).

To allow wider access, each requester may reserve a total of three Masses per quarter, with a maximum of one weekend Mass per requester per quarter.

*Please note: on April 1 there will be no weekday Masses available for request because our weekday schedule is fully booked; weekday requests will next be accepted beginning July 1, 2026. This also means that you will only be able to request one weekend Mass during this quarter.

Thank you for your patience and understanding as we implement this new process. If you have questions or need assistance with a request, please contact the parish office and we will be happy to help.

CUATRO DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

Consideremos ahora a Platón. Seguramente lo recuerdas. Es el filósofo griego que escribió ese hermoso “Mito de la Caverna”, en su República, alrededor de 350 años antes de Cristo. Da el ejemplo de los prisioneros en una cueva, cuyas únicas conexiones con el mundo exterior son unas imágenes parpadeantes en la pared de la cueva. Uno de los prisioneros, sin embargo, escapa y regresa con fantásticas historias de luz, vida y calor fuera de la cueva.

Por supuesto que está loco. Ellos saben bien que la única realidad que existe son sus cadenas, el frío, la oscuridad, y esas entretenidas imágenes en la pared. ¿Te recuerda a alguien?

Esos fariseos, y los vecinos del hombre, estaban tan empeñados en refutar que el Ciego de Nacimiento hubiese sido sanado, que propusieron cualquier explicación posible para negar que así pasó. Por ejemplo:

*¡No, simplemente TE PARECES al tipo que era ciego de nacimiento!
No, sí soy ese tipo.*

*¡Pero él te sanó en sábado! ¡Eso lo convierte en un pecador!
Bueno, no sé nada de eso, pero lo que sí sé es que: estaba ciego y ahora veo.*

No quiero nunca llegar a ser como los fariseos, o los prisioneros en la cueva. Quiero siempre mirar a la Luz que parpadea siempre fuera de las estructuras rígidas y tristes de nuestro mundo sofisticado y cínico.

¿Milagros? Creo absolutamente que Jesucristo todavía está sanando. Pero aquí está tu parte. Es tarea de los bautizados ayudar a los que son prisioneros, o que son ciegos a la bondad de Dios, a salir hacia la Luz.

¿Qué experiencias has tenido de sanación? ¿Te has tomado el tiempo de notarlas?
