LIFE

"I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live."

JOHN 11:25

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Fifth Sunday of Lent

One of my favorite moments of the long liturgical year is coming up soon. I'm thinking of the drama of the Easter Vigil. As we listen to the many readings, we can sense that something's up. That dark altar looks laden with some kind of sweet perfume. All around the dark sanctuary we can see shadows of things wonderful and wise. What are these silent sentinels saying to us? We just commemorated The Triumph of the Cross the day before, with its terrifying Good Friday Passion. When we left the church, the altar was empty and stark. But now...

As soon as the last Old Testament reading is read, and the accompanying responsorial psalm is sung, something shifts. Like a heavy rain moments before the first sound of thunder, the smell of resurrection stirs in us. Could it be? And then the lights begin to lift the darkness of Good Friday. We see now what was just shadows before. The sanctuary is filled with glorious lilies. The bells begin to ring. The first notes of the Gloria, not heard for forty days, strike up. Easter banners, hidden in darkness, are unfurled. The Elect come forward, beaming, in their beautiful Easter clothes. Spring flowers of every hue appear all over the church.

And then the fortunate reader charged with reading the first New Testament reading, the reading that precedes the Easter gospel, proclaims "Are you not aware... that if we have become united with Him in the likeness of His death, certainly we shall also be in the likeness of His resurrection?"

Lazarus, come out. All of our beloved dead, come out. Our broken hearts, come out. It's Easter. You don't want to miss it.

Do you sense that you are being united in Christ's resurrection?

MASS INTENTION SCHEDULING CHANGES

If you've tried to request a Mass in the past few weeks, you know we currently have no available Masses until fall. This used to affect only weekends, but to ensure fairness and consistency for everyone, we are changing our scheduling process for weekday and weekend Masses.

Beginning now, Mass requests will be opened on a quarterly basis:

- On April 1, requests for July–September will open.
- On July 1, requests for October–December will open.
- On October 1, requests for January 2027 – March will open.

These openings will apply to all Masses (weekday and weekend). To allow wider access, each requester may reserve a total of three Masses per quarter, with a maximum of one weekend Mass per requester per quarter.

*Please note: on April 1 there will be no weekday Masses available for request because our weekday schedule is fully booked; weekday requests will next be accepted beginning July 1, 2026. This also means that you will only be able to request one weekend Mass during this quarter.

Thank you for your patience and understanding as we implement this new process. If you have questions or need assistance with a request, please contact the parish office and we will be happy to help.

Domingo de Ramos de la Pasión de Cristo; Comienza la Semana Santa

QUINTO DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

Se acerca uno de mis momentos favoritos del largo año litúrgico. Pienso en el drama de la Vigilia Pascual. Mientras escuchamos las lecturas, podemos sentir que algo está por suceder. Ese altar oscuro parece impregnado de una dulce fragancia. Alrededor del oscuro santuario, podemos ver sombras de cosas maravillosas y sabias. ¿Qué nos dicen estos silenciosos centinelas? El día anterior conmemoramos el Triunfo de la Cruz, con su aterradora Pasión del Viernes Santo. Cuando salimos de la iglesia, el altar estaba vacío y desolado. Pero ahora...

En cuanto se lee el último pasaje del Antiguo Testamento y se canta el salmo responsorial que lo acompaña, algo cambia. Como una lluvia torrencial justo antes del primer trueno, el aroma de la resurrección nos inunda. ¿Será posible?

Y entonces las luces comienzan a disipar la oscuridad del Viernes Santo. Ahora vemos lo que antes eran solo sombras. El santuario se llena de gloriosos lirios. Las campanas comienzan a sonar. Las primeras notas del Gloria, que no se habían escuchado en cuarenta días, resuenan. Los estandartes de Pascua, ocultos en la oscuridad, se despliegan. Los elegidos se acercan, radiantes, con sus hermosas vestiduras pascuales. Flores de primavera de todos los colores brotan por toda la iglesia. Y entonces el afortunado lector encargado de leer la primera lectura del Nuevo Testamento, la que precede al Evangelio de Pascua, proclama: «¿No saben... que si nos hemos unido a Él en la semejanza de su muerte, ciertamente también lo seremos en la de su resurrección?»

Lázaro, sal. Todos nuestros seres queridos que han muerto, salgan. Nuestros corazones rotos, salgan. Es Pascua. No se la pierdan.

¿Sientes que te estás uniendo a la resurrección de Cristo?
