EASTER SUNDAY

It's Easter. Can you feel it? Here in Denver, we don't feel as if we earned it, because it's been deliciously warm all winter. Our friends back east, though, really worked for it this year. But, whether we deserve it or not, birds have suddenly found their way back to our back yard and are greeting us with Easter song. Every spring it's a delightful surprise when the perennials pop up on the south side of our driveway. You again! We forgot all about you. How sweet of you to keep popping up in our neglected yard, reminding us that Easter happens, ready or not.

How was your Lent? Was your fast helpful in pulling you back from the things that are hurting you? Are you more who you want to be, more determined to "not go back to that place of slavery" that keeps you dependent, or powerless? That's always my goal, and once again I didn't achieve it.

But God brings Easter anyway, whether we had a successful Lent or not. Our relentlessly loving God keeps sending flowers and rains, lilacs and lilies, baby chicks and baby humans. An endless Lent is just not in God's nature. Easter is God's nature, with its resurrections and Alleluias, its promise of new life, its memory of an empty tomb, and our Christ, whose triumph over the grave has opened the graves of all believers.

So once again I'll shake off the ashes of failure, lift my face up to the sun, and hold my hands open wide. It's Easter, and the powers of hell cannot prevail against it. Let the feast of the forgiven begin.

How will you celebrate this Fifty Day Feast?

Starting from the essential foundation of Jesus Christ's Incarnation, life, and teaching, Bishop Barron moves through the defining elements of Catholicism—from sacraments, worship, and prayer, to Mary, the Apostles, and saints, to grace, salvation, heaven, and hell—using his distinct and dynamic grasp of art, literature, architecture, personal stories, Scripture, theology, philosophy, and history to present the Church to the world.

Join us Mondays mornings at 10am or evenings at 6pm in the Family Room. Those who want to enter without stairs please use the walkway to the basement on the east side of the church.

La corresponsabilidad diaria

Durante la Pascua celebramos el hecho de que Jesús venció la muerte, resucitó de entre los muertos y sigue vivo entre nosotros. Al no creyente esto es difícil de entender. Es una realidad enorme. Pero para el creyente, es una realidad que nos inspira y que nos ayuda a compartir el Evangelio con todos.

¿Qué significa la Pascua para usted? Note que la pregunta no es si usted cree, sino que ¿qué efecto tiene la Pascua para usted? ¿Cómo demuestran sus acciones el poder de la Pascua? ¿Qué significa el decir que la Iglesia somos una gente pascual?

Puede estar decidido que no quiere ser evangelizador dándoles Biblias a todos que se encuentra. Pero le quiero sugerir que usted tiene una manera más fuerte de evangelizar: la corresponsabilidad diaria. Las acciones pueden decir más que las palabras y la manera en que usted vive su vida puede ser testimonio para los que se encuentren. En aceptar los dones que Dios le ha regalado, dará testimonio a su creencia de que Jesús está vivo y está buscando una relación con todos.

Si más de nosotros no buscamos vivir nuestras vidas de esta forma, entonces los no creyentes se preguntarán: ¿Qué diferencia hace la Pascua de cualquier modo? Jesús murió y resucitó para usted y para mí. Asegúrese de que sí haga una diferencia.
