FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

I have come that you might have life, and have it in abundance. Who can resist the One who promises that to each of us? I can't. I never have been able to resist Jesus, and that grace has brought me nothing but blessing every day of my life.

I have come that you might have life, and have it in abundance. Who can resist the One who promises that to each of us? I can't. I never have been able to resist Jesus, and that grace has brought me nothing but blessing every day of my life.

Imagine Jesus, using the language of sheep-tending, trying to draw the Pharisees into the new life that is their inheritance. He reminds them of the sheep-gate, and how the sheep won't enter until the gate-keeper opens it. The Pharisees just stare at him. Okay, he says, let's try this: the sheep will only follow the good shepherd. They know the voice of the shepherd who truly cares for their welfare, and they won't follow the thieves and robbers. The Pharisees look dumbly ahead. They're just not getting it.

LOOK, says an exasperated Jesus. I AM THE GATE. I AM YOUR LIFE, YOUR HOPE, YOUR SECURITY, YOUR PEACE. He can't say it more clearly than that. But how can he be the long-awaited Messiah when he has no army, no generals to command, breaks the laws of the Sabbath, he let that adulteress go free, and he eats and drinks with sinners?

Oh, says Jesus, if today you would just hear my voice. I'm calling you—that's YOU he's talking to, by the way. Dig deep. Listen with all your heart. Tune out all soul-deadening clamor of the culture. If you seek me, says Jesus, you will find me. If you seek me with all of your heart I will let myself be found by you.

Abundant life? Oh, yeah. Call us by name, Good Shepherd. You're coming in loud and clear.

In what ways are you tuning in to the voice of Jesus?

CUARTO DOMINGO DE PASCUA

He venido para que tengan vida, y la tengan en abundancia. ¿Quién se puede resistir al que nos promete eso a cada uno de nosotros? Yo no. Nunca he podido resistirme a Jesús, y a esa gracia que me inundado de bendiciones cada día de mi vida.

Imaginen a Jesús, usando el lenguaje del pastoreo, tratando de atraer a los fariseos a la nueva vida que les pertenece. Les recuerda la puerta del rebaño y cómo las ovejas no entrarán hasta que el portero la abra. Los fariseos lo miran fijamente. Bien, dice, intentemos esto: las ovejas solo seguirán al buen pastor. Conocen la voz del pastor que verdaderamente se preocupa por su bienestar, y no seguirán a los ladrones. Los fariseos miran al frente, atónitos. Simplemente no lo entienden.

¡Miren!, dice un Jesús exasperado. Yo soy la puerta. Yo soy su vida, su esperanza, su seguridad, su paz. No puede decirlo más claro. Pero ¿cómo puede ser el Mesías tan esperado si no tiene ejército, ni generales a quienes comandar, si quebranta las leyes del sábado, si deja libre a esa adúltera y si come y bebe con pecadores?

Oh, dice Jesús, si tan solo escucharas mi voz hoy. Te estoy llamando; por cierto, te está hablando a ti. Profundiza. Escucha con todo tu corazón. Ignora todo el clamor de esta cultura que mata el alma. Si me buscas, dice Jesús, me encontrarás. Si me buscas con todo tu corazón, me dejaré encontrar por ti.

¿Vida abundante? ¡Claro que sí! Llámanos por nuestro nombre, Buen Pastor. Tu voz se escucha fuerte y clara.

¿De qué maneras estás sintonizando con la voz de Jesús?
