SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION

Last year we resolved to begin our Pentecost novena either last Thursday, or today. Imagine that all the readers of this column around the country are praying together, right now. Our prayer is that we would be ready to give a reason for our HOPE.

It's hard to find HOPE at times, I know. As I read back on last year's novena, I see heartfelt prayers for a swift end to Russia's war in Ukraine. We prayed that Vladimir Putin would have a conversion experience. We prayed that those who were trapped in Ukraine would find a safe way out.

We prayed this novena for nine days, right up to Pentecost of last year. I'm going to pray it again this year, and for as long as it takes. But I want to suggest another novena that's closer to home this year.

It was so inspiring---so HOPEFUL---to see the lines of cars lined up last month in our parish parking lot. They had come to surrender any weapons from their homes. We recovered 58 guns, several of which were assault weapons. It's a drop in the bucket, of course, but there's no stopping a moment whose time has come. And so, I offer this Novena

Prayer:

O God of peace, save us from ourselves.

This year has brought another terrible war, and so much suffering. But this is the reason for our HOPE: hearts can be changed. Change our hearts this day. We pray in Jesus' Name. AMEN.

Who are you praying for in your Pentecost novena?

Domingo de Pentecostés

SOLEMNIDAD DE LA ASCENSIÓN

El año pasado decidimos comenzar nuestra novena de Pentecostés, ya fuera el jueves pasado o hoy. Imaginen que todos los lectores de esta columna en todo el país están rezando juntos, justo en este momento. Nuestra oración es que estemos preparados para dar razón de nuestra ESPERANZA.

Sé que, a veces, resulta difícil encontrar ESPERANZA. Al releer la novena del año pasado, encuentro oraciones sinceras pidiendo un fin rápido para la guerra de Rusia en Ucrania. Rezamos para que Vladimir Putin tuviera una experiencia de conversión. Rezamos para que aquellos que se encontraban atrapados en Ucrania hallaran una salida segura.

Rezamos esta novena durante nueve días, hasta llegar al Pentecostés del año pasado. Voy a rezarla de nuevo este año, y durante todo el tiempo que sea necesario. Pero este año quiero sugerir otra novena, una que nos toca más de cerca.

Fue tan inspirador —tan LLENO DE ESPERANZA— ver las filas de automóviles formadas el mes pasado en el estacionamiento de nuestra parroquia. Habían acudido para entregar las armas que tenían en sus hogares. Recogimos 58 armas de fuego; varias de ellas eran armas de asalto. Es apenas una gota en el océano, por supuesto, pero no hay fuerza capaz de detener un momento cuyo tiempo ha llegado. Y así, ofrezco esta Oración de la Novena:

Oh, Dios de la paz, sálvanos de nosotros mismos.

Este año ha traído consigo otra guerra terrible y un sufrimiento inmenso. Pero esta es la razón de nuestra ESPERANZA: los corazones pueden cambiar. Transforma nuestros corazones en este día. Rezamos en el nombre de Jesús. AMÉN.

¿Por quién estás rezando en tu novena de Pentecostés?
