THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

My friend John's story about going to the football game with his dad comes back to me every year on this feast day. "I'll never give up my season tickets. I go to every game. It's the place where my dad and I have our best talks."

His dad died nearly thirty years ago. Growing up, John and his dad enjoyed the entire Game Day ritual—Mass, breakfast, driving to the stadium, firing up the grill, hamburgers, and football. They talked, and ate, and shared in the triumphs and humiliations of the game. And the next week, if the team was in town, they did it all again.

John grieved horribly when his dad died in the spring of 1990. He was his best friend. They had built so many memories. He would never see him again.

Except, of course, on Sunday afternoons, in the sun and wind and cold, and the hot dogs and beer, and the cheering and the booing, and memories so real that John feels his dad next to him at every game. He goes to see his dad, to really feel his presence.

There are many sensory triggers that can transport us. Think about pipe smoke. Can you smell it? I can, and suddenly my grandpa is with me. A Beach Boys song on a summer day can bring childhood friends right into the room. These cues make the past Really Present.

As Catholics, we get that. Every Sunday we place ourselves in the position to Re-Member the One who loved us to his death. In the Eucharist the Beloved Past becomes the Real Presence. This is the feast that tells us who we are.

What sensory experiences bring the past right back to you?

LA SOLEMNIDAD DEL SANTISIMO CUERPO Y SANGRE DE CRISTO

La historia que me contó mi amigo John de cuando iba a los juegos de fútbol americano con su papá me viene a la mente cada año durante este día de fiesta. "Nunca dejaré de comprar mis boletos de temporada. Voy a todos los juegos. Es el lugar donde mi papá y yo tenemos nuestras mejores conversaciones."

Su papá falleció hace treinta años. Cuando John estaba chico, él y su papá disfrutaban todos los rituales del Día del Juego- la misa, el desayuno, conducir hacia el estadio, encender el asador, hamburguesas, y fútbol americano. Conversaban, y comían, y compartían los triunfos y las humillaciones del juego. Y la siguiente semana, si el equipo estaba en casa, lo hacían todo de nuevo.

John sufrió muchísimo cuando su papá falleció en la primavera de 1990. Él era su mejor amigo. Habían construido tantos recuerdos. Nunca más lo volvería a ver.

Excepto, por supuesto, los domingos por la tarde, en el sol y el viento y el frío, y en los hot dogs y la cerveza, y en las porras y en los abucheos, y en los recuerdos que son tan reales que John siente que su papá está allí al lado de él durante cada juego. Él va a ver a su papa, para realmente sentir su presencia.

Existen muchas cosas que activan nuestros sentidos y nos pueden transportar. Piensa en el humo de una pipa. ¿Puedes olerlo? Yo sí puedo, y de repente mi abuelito está conmigo. Una canción de los Beach Boys en un día de verano puede traernos a nuestros amigos de la infancia hasta donde estemos. Estas señales hacen que el Pasado esté realmente en el Presente.

Como católicos, nosotros entendemos eso. Cada domingo nos ponemos en la actitud de Recordar a Aquel que nos amó hasta su muerte. En la Eucaristía el Pasado Amado se convierte en una Presencia Real. Esta es la fiesta que nos dice quienes somos.

¿Cuáles experiencias sensoriales te traen al pasado de vuelta?
