FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

My measly six-block walk feels like six miles when I do it in the heat of the day, which somehow it always is. I always start out early in the morning, with a very light jacket and a water bottle. Three blocks in and I've got the jacket wrapped around my waist, and by the time I'm home the water bottle feels like a ten-pound barbell.

My fantasy is always the same, that my husband will come along on his bike and carry the jacket, the bottle, and, finally, me, over the finish line. Somehow, I always make it—tiny workout that it is—but I've never once done it without wishing someone would come along and make it easier.

What a heavy load the Jews of Jesus' day carried. They labored long and hard in the desert sun, and a good portion of what they earned went straight to the Romans. They were also loaded down with the burdens of the Mosaic Law, which, although received in joy centuries before at Mount Sinai, had become impossible to fulfill because of the hundreds of additions and legalities imposed as time went on.

What an enormous relief the gospel was for the disciples, and for all of us who are carrying around too much stuff. In the heat of the summer, it's best to travel light, and there is nothing lighter than the yoke of forgiveness and unconditional love which Jesus wants to place on our shoulders, while removing the weights of regret and remorse.

Are you heavily burdened and praying for relief? I pray that the Body of Christ is on the way, right around the corner, ready to carry you, and all your stuff, across the finish line.

How do you help carry the burdens of those who are heavily laden?

DECIMO-CUARTO DOMINGO DE TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Mi insignificante caminata de seis cuabras parece ser de seis millas cuando lo hago en la hora más caliente del día, que parece ser a todas horas. Siempre comienzo tempranito en la mañana, con una chaqueta ligera y una botella de agua. Después de tres cuabras ya traigo la chaqueta amarrada a la cintura, y para cuando llego a la casa la botella de agua parece pesar toneladas.

Mi fantasía siempre es la misma, que mi esposo me acompañe en su bicicleta y cargue la chaqueta y la botella, y finalmente me cargue a mí hasta la línea de meta. De alguna manera siempre me las arreglo para terminar- este poco ejercicio que es- pero nunca lo he hecho sin desear que alguien viniera conmigo para hacerlo más fácil.

Que carga tan pesada llevaban los judíos en los tiempos de Jesús. Trabajaban largas horas bajo el sol del desierto, y una gran porción de lo que ganaban iba directo a los romanos. También se encontraban agobiados con las cargas de la ley mosaica, la cual había sido recibida con mucho gozo siglos antes en el Monte Sinaí, pero ahora se había convertido en imposible de cumplir por causa de todos los cientos de adiciones y legalidades que se le fueron agregando con el paso del tiempo. Qué alivio tan enorme fue el evangelio para los discípulos, y para todos aquellos de nosotros que llevamos cargando demasiadas cosas encima. En el calor del verano es mejor viajar a lo ligero, y no hay nada más ligero que el yugo del perdón y el amor incondicional que Jesús quiere poner en nuestros hombros, mientras que remueve el peso del remordimiento y el arrepentimiento.

¿Cómo ayudas a aquellos que llevan grandes pesos encima a llevar sus cargas?
