FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Hearing the parable of the Sower and the seeds again today, I think of the many scriptures that remind us of what true wealth is. If you want to be rich, love true riches. It's that simple. The true riches of this world are people. The next time you're sitting on a plane, take a minute to meet the person sitting right next to you. Chances are you'll be so enriched by your short conversation that you'll wonder why you didn't initiate the conversation earlier.

"If you value rank and renown", wrote Pope Gregory the Great, "hasten to be enrolled in the heavenly court of the angels". Now, finding that heavenly court means paying strong attention to the seeds of discipline and piety that you probably carefully sowed in your youth, but may have let go by the wayside as you grew into adulthood.

Store up in your minds the Lord's words which you receive through the reading of the scriptures at Mass, and in your daily reading and prayer. That's the truest nourishment there is. But if the words you hear aren't stored away, they are like good seed on rocky soil. There are so many distractions for the attention of our minds. News stories and baby videos (my particular weakness) jump in to steal the Word from our memories.

Be careful, then, that the word you have received through your ears remains in your heart. Be careful that the seed does not fall along the path, for fear that the evil spirit (or endless internet distractions) may come and take it from your memory.

Good seed is sown through perseverance, through following through, through making the best of the field you've been given.

In what ways do you tend the garden of your life?

THANK YOU FOR AN AMAZING VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL!

This year, we were blessed to welcome 90 children who spent the week growing in their faith, learning about God's amazing love, making new friends, singing, praying, and having so much fun together. Watching their excitement and joy reminded us that the Church is truly alive in our youngest disciples.

A sincere thank you to our amazing teen volunteers. You gave your time, energy, patience, and enthusiasm each day, serving as wonderful role models for our children. Your willingness to serve helped make this week a tremendous success, and we are so proud of each of you. We are also deeply grateful to our parish family for your prayers, encouragement, and generous support. Thank you to the parish groups and ministries that graciously shared their spaces and supported Vacation Bible School in so many ways. Your generosity allowed this ministry to flourish and made it possible for so many children to encounter Jesus in a joyful and welcoming environment. May God bless each of you for your generosity and commitment to sharing His love with our children.

DÉCIMO QUINTO DE TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Al oír la parábola del Sembrador y las semillas de nuevo hoy, pienso en las tantas escrituras que nos recuerdan lo que realmente es la riqueza. Si quieres ser rico, debes amar las verdaderas riquezas, es así de simple. Las verdaderas riquezas de este mundo son las personas. La próxima vez que viajes por avión, tómame un momento para conocer a la persona que se siente a tu lado. Te aseguro que te sentirás tan deleitado después de haber entablado esa corta conversación, que te preguntarás por qué no habías tratado de hablarle antes.

«Si valoráis el rango y la fama», escribió el Papa Gregorio Magno, «apresuraos a entrar en la corte celestial de los ángeles». Ahora bien, encontrar esa corte celestial implica prestar mucha atención a las semillas de disciplina y piedad que probablemente sembraste con esmero en tu juventud, pero que tal vez dejaste de lado al llegar a la edad adulta.

Guarda en tu mente las palabras del Señor que recibes al leer las Escrituras en la Misa, en tu lectura diaria y en la oración. Ese es el alimento más verdadero que existe. Pero si las palabras que escuchas no se almacenan, son como buena semilla en tierra pedregosa. Hay tantas distracciones que captan la atención de nuestra mente. Las noticias y los videos de bebés (mi debilidad particular) se interponen para robarnos la Palabra de la memoria.

Ten cuidado, pues, de que la palabra que has recibido por tus oídos permanezca en tu corazón. Ten cuidado de que la semilla no caiga por el camino, no sea que el espíritu maligno (o las constantes distracciones de internet) venga y te la arrebathe de la memoria.

Las buenas semillas se siembran con perseverancia, con constancia, con aprovechar al máximo el terreno que se nos ha dado.

¿De qué maneras cuidas el jardín de tu vida?
