NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We don't live in the time of the ancient Jews, living in a Canaanite society, who would have heard that reading about Elijah in the cave (1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a). But if we did, we might find ourselves snickering, poking, and laughing out loud as we heard all the places Elijah sought to hear God's voice. Here's why.

First, this happens on the mountain of Horeb (Sinai), the very place where Moses received the Ten Commandments twenty generations before. So, as Elijah takes shelter from the Canaanites who are searching to kill him, the Lord tells Elijah to leave his place of safety and to go out in plain sight to wait, for "the Lord will be passing by."

That's the first AHA moment for our Jewish audience, because they remember that when Moses himself stood on that very mountain (Exodus 33 and 34), the Lord passed by and revealed to him that God is compassionate, gracious, slow to anger, and full of great love and forgiveness.

God shows love to thousands of generations, but...ahem... also does not let the guilty go unpunished. Our Jewish audience roars, because they know that terrible things happened to the Canaanite prophets who confronted Elijah. Yes! The guilty were punished, but Elijah was cared for! What a comfort to a Hebrew community who were oppressed by the Canaanites at every turn.

But here's the funny part that the writer surely put in the story to give the Jews strength. God can't be found in the heavy and strong wind, nor the earthquake, nor the fire. Why? Because wind, earthquake and fire are all Canaanite gods! And you'll never find the true God there.

What places do we look for God today that can never satisfy?

MISSION APPEAL AUGUST 15-16

The Diocese of Paulo Afonso-Brazil

The Diocese of Paulo Afonso, Brazil, was created 55 years ago by Pope Saint Paul VI. It's land area is 16,655 mi² (the size of the state of Massachusetts) with a population of 510,000. There are 365,000 Catholics in 30 parishes, with 42 priests, 17 seminarians, and 13 nuns.

Youth formation

Concerned about the often negative impact of social media to which teenagers and young people have easy access, we are proposing a more solid formation, reaching and training 500 young people. They will be enabled of becoming missionary disciples of Jesus in schools and universities.

FUNDAME (Minor Support Foundation)

FUNDAME School is a foundation for comprehensive education (human and spiritual) for children and teenagers in situations of social vulnerability. We need to completely rebuild the electrical structure of the facilities for security reasons, and to better accomplish this educational mission.

Training Community Leaders

Priests are not always able to regularly serve the more remote villages. With this proposal lay people will receive adequate training to assume leadership roles, capable of proclaiming the Word of God and organizing communities (community prayer, sacramental catechesis, service groups, etc).

"We need your support to promote our works of Propagation of the Faith and to help the poorest!"

DECIMONOVENO DE TIEMPO ORDINARIO

No vivimos en la época de los antiguos judíos, en una sociedad cananea, que habrían escuchado esa lectura sobre Elías en la cueva (1 Reyes 19:9a, 11-13a). Pero si así fuera, quizá nos encontraríamos sonriendo con picardía, dándonos codazos y riéndonos en voz alta al escuchar todos los lugares donde Elías buscó oír la voz de Dios. He aquí el porqué.

Primero, esto sucede en el monte Horeb (Sinaí), el mismo lugar donde Moisés recibió los Diez Mandamientos veinte generaciones antes. Así que, mientras Elías se refugia escondido de los cananeos que lo buscan para matarlo, el Señor le dice a Elías que salga de su lugar seguro y espere ante la vista de todos, porque “el Señor pasará por allí”.

Ese es el primer momento de “¡Ajá!”  para nuestra audiencia judía, porque recuerdan que cuando el mismo Moisés estuvo en esa misma montaña (Éxodo 33 y 34), el Señor pasó delante de él y le reveló que Dios es compasivo, misericordioso, lento para la ira y lleno de gran amor y perdón.

Dios muestra amor a miles de generaciones, pero... ejem... tampoco deja sin castigo al culpable. Nuestro público judío estalla en aplausos, porque sabe que les sucedieron cosas terribles a los profetas cananeos que se enfrentaron a Elías. ¡Sí! Los culpables fueron castigados, ¡pero Elías fue cuidado! Qué consuelo para una comunidad hebrea que era constantemente oprimida por los cananeos.

Pero aquí viene la parte divertida que el escritor seguramente puso en la historia para darles valor a los judíos. Dios no puede encontrarse en el viento fuerte y poderoso, ni en el terremoto, ni en el fuego. ¿Por qué? ¡Porque el viento, el terremoto y el fuego son todos dioses cananeos! Y allí nunca encontrarás al Dios verdadero.

¿En qué lugares buscamos hoy a Dios que nunca nos podrán satisfacer?
