TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

I don't think I'd have had the humility to do what that heroic Canaanite woman did. She was finally in the presence of the great Rabbi, the Jesus the provinces were so excited about. "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David!" she cried out. Right away we see her great humility, in addressing Jesus by his Jewish title. She was a Canaanite and knew nothing of David or Moses. But she'd done her homework, and knew that this Jew, this Jesus, was often called the Son of David..

She approached him and begged him to heal her dear daughter, who was in the clutches of a demon. The disciples with Jesus did what they so often did. They tried to shush her and get her to move on. What would the Master want with a miserable Canaanite woman?

It's so disheartening to see the people closest to Jesus, who had traveled hundreds of miles with him, so often miss the mark when it came to compassion for non-Jews.

But this time, Jesus misses the mark too, and tells her he has only come for the Jews. Our hearts break a little every three years when this reading comes up in the lectionary, when we hear Jesus say this to her. But wait! She's "doing theology," that is, talking about God, with him! And he is overjoyed that this Canaanite woman, who never had the great privilege of hearing the Word of God, has more faith than most of the Jews he'd come to save.

He cures her daughter, of course. I like to imagine Jesus and this faith-filled woman exchanging a great laugh and a long, grateful hug.

When has humility brought you closer to someone than pride?

The Diocese of Paulo Afonso-Brazil

The Diocese of Paulo Afonso, Brazil, was created 55 years ago by Pope Saint Paul VI. It's land area is 16,655 mi² (the size of the state of Massachusetts) with a population of 510,000. There are 365,000 Catholics in 30 parishes, with 42 priests, 17 seminarians, and 13 nuns.

Youth formation

Concerned about the often negative impact of social media to which teenagers and young people have easy access, we are proposing a more solid formation, reaching and training 500 young people. They will be enabled of becoming missionary disciples of Jesus in schools and universities.

FUNDAME (Minor Support Foundation)

FUNDAME School is a foundation for comprehensive education (human and spiritual) for children and teenagers in situations of social vulnerability. We need to completely rebuild the electrical structure of the facilities for security reasons, and to better accomplish this educational mission.

Training Community Leaders

Priests are not always able to regularly serve the more remote villages. With this proposal lay people will receive adequate training to assume leadership roles, capable of proclaiming the Word of God and organizing communities (community prayer, sacramental catechesis, service groups, etc).

"We need your support to promote our works of Propagation of the Faith and to help the poorest!"

Most Reverend Guido Zendron
Bishop of Paulo Afonso

VIGÉSIMO DOMINGO DE TIEMPO ORDINARIO

No creo que yo hubiera tenido la humildad de hacer lo que hizo aquella heroica mujer cananea. Por fin estaba ante la presencia del gran Rabí, aquel Jesús que tanto entusiasmo despertaba en las provincias. «¡Ten piedad de mí, Señor, Hijo de David!», clamó. De inmediato apreciamos su gran humildad al dirigirse a Jesús usando su título judío. Ella era cananea y no sabía nada de David ni de Moisés; sin embargo, se había informado bien y sabía que a aquel judío, a Jesús, a menudo se le llamaba «Hijo de David».

Ella se acercó a él y le suplicó que sanara a su querida hija, quien estaba en las garras de un demonio. Los discípulos que acompañaban a Jesús hicieron lo que solían hacer a menudo: intentaron callarla y hacer que se marchara. ¿Qué interés podría tener el Maestro en una mísera mujer cananea?

Resulta muy desalentador ver cómo las personas más cercanas a Jesús — quienes habían recorrido cientos de kilómetros junto a él— a menudo no estaban a la altura cuando se trataba de mostrar compasión hacia los no judíos.

Pero esta vez, Jesús también yerra el tiro y le dice que solo ha venido para los judíos. El corazón se nos encoge un poco cada tres años cuando esta lectura aparece en el leccionario y escuchamos a Jesús decirle esto. ¡Pero un momento! ¡Ella está «hablando de teología» —es decir, hablando de Dios — con él! Y a él le llena de alegría que esta mujer cananea, que nunca tuvo el gran privilegio de escuchar la Palabra de Dios, tenga más fe que la mayoría de los judíos a quienes había venido a salvar.

Él cura a su hija, por supuesto. Me gusta imaginar a Jesús y a esta mujer llena de fe compartiendo una gran carcajada y un largo abrazo de gratitud.

¿Cuándo te ha acercado más a alguien la humildad que el orgullo?
