TWENTY- SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

I have so many questions about what Jesus knew, and when he knew it. Did he and the other members of the Trinity talk it over, and decide to offer up Jesus to the world? Though he was in the form of God, did Jesus truly count the cost before he gave up the bliss of heaven to become one with us? He had the fullness of everything that ever was or ever will be, and yet he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave.

Imagine a multi-billionaire like Bill Gates deciding that he couldn't truly help the world unless he became like the poorest of the poor. Imagine him giving up his dazzling estates around the planet, not just for a noble experiment that had an exit strategy, but for the rest of his life. Imagine him giving up his health care and dental plan. In fact, imagine him sacrificing the health care he'd had all his life, and going out into the world with unchecked high blood pressure, and rotting teeth.

Those who actually do live with these health deficits will likely die earlier than those of us who gratefully see our dentists and health care providers as needed, if not twice a year. But imagine having those advantages, and giving them up, so as to truly live as much of the world lives.

We might be able to stretch our imaginations that far, but until we enjoy the Beatific Vision ourselves (by God's grace), we will never grasp what Jesus gave up in order to be God with us. That's love beyond all telling. That's the most amazing grace.

I can only imagine.

In what ways is Jesus Christ the Lord of your life?

VIGÉSIMO SEXTO DOMINGO DE TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Tengo muchas interrogantes acerca de qué sabía Jesús y cuándo lo supo. ¿Será que Él y los otros dos miembros de la trinidad lo discutieron, y decidieron ofrecerle a Jesús al mundo? Aunque él tenía forma de Dios, ¿Realmente midió el costo antes de renunciar a la dicha del cielo para hacerse uno con nosotros? Tenía la plenitud de todo lo que ha existido o va a existir, y sin embargo se vació a sí mismo, tomando forma de esclavo.

Imagínate que un multibillonario como Bill Gates decide que no puede realmente ayudar a los pobres sin convertirse en el más pobre de los pobres. Imagínatelo regalando todas sus deslumbrantes mansiones alrededor del mundo, no solo para hacer un experimento noble con vuelta atrás, sino para el resto de su vida. Imagínatelo renunciando a su cuidado de salud y plan dental. De hecho, imagínatelo sacrificando el cuidado medico que ha tenido toda la vida y saliendo al mundo con la presión arterial alta y con los dientes podridos.

Aquellos que realmente viven con estos déficits de salud probablemente morirán antes que aquellos de nosotros que, con gratitud, acudimos a nuestros dentistas y proveedores de atención médica cuando es necesario, si no es que dos veces al año. Pero imaginemos tener esas ventajas y renunciar a ellas para poder vivir verdaderamente como vive gran parte del mundo.

Quizás podamos llevar nuestra imaginación hasta ese punto, pero hasta que no disfrutemos nosotros mismos de la Visión Beatífica (por la gracia de Dios), nunca entenderemos a lo que Jesús renunció para ser Dios con nosotros. Esa es la más grande expresión de amor. Esa es la gracia más asombrosa. Sólo puedo imaginar.

¿De qué manera Jesucristo es el Señor de tu vida?
