THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Love God First

When the iconic Notre-Dame Cathedral of Paris burned in 2019, some made the argument that the money necessary to rebuild it would be better spent by the Church on providing services to the poor.

“After all,” I heard someone argue. “History is important, but humanitarianism is our religion.”

Close, but — as my father likes to say — no cigar.

Humanitarianism is actually not our religion, and you should never let anyone tell you it is. It’s a small mistake, but it can become a big one, fast. Humanitarianism is wonderful — it describes a set of principles animated by an underlying belief in the value of human life. But this is not sufficient. We can’t start with loving people and work our way up to God.

Why? Because I promise you, we will never end up reaching God.

If you have any doubt about this, you can consult literally any history book. Every war, every famine, every political disaster since the dawn of time has resulted from an attempt to put people first. “We’re putting our people first,” governments say — always right before they do something really, really heinous.

For what it’s worth, the Church hasn’t owned the Notre-Dame de Paris since the French Revolution. It was seized and rededicated to the Cult of Reason — the atheistic state religion that, it assured everyone, put people first (and put those people who disagreed to death at the guillotine).

We can’t start with love of people, because we will always displace some of the other people. Only by starting with love of God — heart, soul, and mind — can we enter the narrow gate of correctly loving other people.

TRIGÉSIMO DOMINGO DE TIEMPO ORDINARIO

RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Ama a Dios Primer

Cuando la icónica catedral de Notre-Dame de París se incendió en 2019, algunos argumentaron que el dinero necesario para reconstruirla sería mejor invertido por la Iglesia en prestar servicios a los pobres.

"Después de todo", oí a alguien discutir. "La historia es importante, pero el humanitarismo es nuestra religión."

Casi, pero — como le gusta decir a mi padre — nada de puro.

El humanitarismo en realidad no es nuestra religión, y nunca deberías dejar que nadie te diga que lo es. Es un error pequeño, pero puede convertirse en uno grande, rápido. El humanitarismo es maravilloso: describe un conjunto de principios animados por una creencia subyacente en el valor de la vida humana. Pero esto no es suficiente. No podemos empezar por amar a las personas y avanzar hasta llegar a Dios.

¿Por qué? Porque te prometo que nunca llegaremos a Dios.

Si tienes alguna duda sobre esto, puedes consultar literalmente cualquier libro de historia. Cada guerra, cada hambruna, cada desastre político desde el principio de los tiempos ha sido resultado de un intento de poner a las personas en primer lugar. "Estamos poniendo a nuestra gente en primer lugar", dicen los gobiernos — siempre justo antes de hacer algo realmente atroz.

Por si sirve de algo, la Iglesia no ha poseído la Notre-Dame de París desde la Revolución Francesa. Fue incautada y re-dedicada al Culto de la Razón — la religión estatal atea que, aseguraba a todos, ponía a las personas en primer lugar (y daba muerte a quienes no estaban de acuerdo en la guillotina).

No podemos empezar por el amor a la gente, porque siempre desplazaremos a algunos de los demás. Solo empezando por el amor a Dios — corazón, alma y mente — podemos entrar en la estrecha puerta de amar correctamente a los demás.
